

Destiny Stroud has a background in Marketing, studying for 2 years at the University of Illinois at Chicago. She then transferred to Northern Illinois University to pursue a Bachelors in Psychology and Fine Arts. As an artist, she mainly specializes in photography that illustrates observed behaviors, human relations, and the internal psyche. As an LGBTQ+ female she has started to make work within the community. Destiny is both proficient in shooting with DSLR and analogue cameras. Her expansive training has taught her to be skilled in using editing software, developing film, printing with inkjet printers, and handling lighting equipment: external flashes, strobes, backdrops, bogos, etc. Since a lot of her work is psychological, she loves working with models and meeting new people through her practice, but can also be found making abstract still life's in the lighting studio as well. Outside of school projects, Destiny worked in the professional field for Central Valley Studios as one of the main graduation photographers.
