

Neishamia Kayizzi

Biography

Neishamia Kayizzi is an interdisciplinary artist who was born in New York and raised all over the world; Though feels no connection to any one location. They create multi-medium art pieces that discuss their life experiences as it develops in front of them. Themes of dissociation, confrontation and race are often explored by them, as they navigate the way in which we process unfortunate circumstances. Neishamia's work undertakes the punishing task of riding the line between a conversation of specific traumatic events and a divulgence of them. Neishamia licenses the audience to peek into deeply personal moments of insecurity, fright and depression; Aiming to find connection in the lives of the audience that examines their work in turn.
