

Biographical Sketch

My name is JadaKess Neal and I am a Illinois native, art administration major from Streamwood IL. Currently attending Northern Illinois University and specializing in naturalism and abstract paintings. Through my art I hope to speak out and express my own and other worldly emotions. Art is not only a passion of mine, but a talent that I learned to use as a strength in validating my knowledge of what was going on around me.