

Artist Statement

My art can be classified as cute or meaningful, whichever one it may be, I only want to tell a story of the world around me through my eyes. I am always interested in creating new color palettes and exploring different techniques, I hope to only keep improving as time goes by. I am currently experimenting with gouache, which has been my favorite thus far. Please look forward to my future works!